Dominica Earns Global Spotlight with Dual Tourism Award Nominations

Public encouraged to vote by August 10 and October 17 to support Dominica's bid for international recognition

ROSEAU, Dominica, (July 9, 2025) – The Ministry of Tourism and Discover Dominica Authority announce that Dominica has received nominations for two major international travel awards, reaffirming the island's growing appeal among global and regional travelers.

Dominica has been shortlisted for “Most Desirable Island – Worldwide” in the 2025 Wanderlust Travel Awards, a globally respected recognition powered by readers of Wanderlust Magazine. The winners will be announced on November 5, 2025, during the World Travel Market in London.

Additionally, Dominica has been nominated for two major categories in the 2025 World Travel Awards:

- Caribbean's Leading Adventure Tourism Destination
- Caribbean's Leading Nature Destination

These nominations reflect Dominica's exceptional ecotourism offerings, where nature, culture and adventure intersect in unmatched harmony.

“This dual recognition from both Wanderlust and the World Travel Awards reinforces what we as Dominicans already know, our island is a natural gem with a powerful story to share. Let's rally behind Dominica and make our voices heard,” said Marva Williams, CEO of Discover Dominica Authority and Director of Tourism.

Voting is now open and all Dominicans, both at home and abroad, along with supporters of the Nature Island, are encouraged to cast their votes and spread the word.
